2019 Membership: Eligibility and Fees

The eligibility for membership of the Company as outlined in the Constitution is provided below.

A not-for-profit organisation that provides child, youth and family welfare services in NSW or the ACT and who supports the purposes of Association of Children's Welfare Agencies Ltd. (ACWA).

Important Things to Know:

- As a member organisation, you must nominate a contact person as delegate. We suggest that this person is the CEO or Director. The delegate is the only person who can endorse the nomination of a candidate for the Board of ACWA. In addition, the delegate is the only person who can vote on behalf of the organisation and/or stand as a candidate for election to the Board of ACWA.
- It is the responsibility of the member to advise ACWA of any changes to their contact details, including those of the contact person.

For members' entitlements and other information, please refer to our website:

<https://www.acwa.asn.au/membership-form/>

Membership Fee:

The membership fee for organisations that apply for membership is based on the child, youth and family services revenue of the organisation for the previous financial year.

Example Only:

A large charity had an annual turnover of $54 million for the previous financial year, of that amount, $36 million is utilised for child, youth and family services, this agency's membership fee would be $7018.

Example Only:

A small not-for-profit agency has an annual turnover of $2.4 million for the previous financial year, of that amount, $2.3 million is utilised for child, youth and family services, this agency's membership fee for would be $280.

Category	Fee*
Up to $3M	$280
Over $3M, up to $5M	$709
Over $5M, up to $10M	$2112
Over $10M, up to $25M	$3518
Over $25M	$7018

* Membership fees are due on 1 January annually.

* Pro Rata fees apply for organisations joining throughout the year.
