

AbSec, ACWA and FNSW present

Safe: On Country and In Culture

Friday 9th June 2017 Barangaroo Sydney 11am–2:30pm

At the 20th Anniversary of the 'Bringing Them Home' report, the child welfare sector is focused on generating a broad public conversation about the importance of keeping Aboriginal children 'Safe: On Country and In Culture'.

Join us in celebrating the wonderful care currently being provided by Aboriginal kinship and foster carers across NSW and raising awareness that more Aboriginal carers are needed.

10:50am Registration

11:00am Opening Welcome

Marcia Ella Duncan OAM will MC and facilitate the day

Special screening of For the Kids short documentary film commissioned by AbSec and ACWA

Facilitated yarning circle where attendees can share stories and explore ideas with foster carers, young people who have been in the out-of-home care system, advocates, policy makers, community leaders and special guests from the Arts and Sports worlds*

This event will be filmed and guests may be asked to give interviews to Media*

2.30pm Close

FOSTERING NSW
Growing together

RSVP
Now

Limited places available. NGO Staff and carers are invited to attend and participate. Lunch will be provided.

Level 35—Tower Two, International Towers, 200 Barangaroo Avenue.

The event is sponsored by Gilbert + Tobin and is funded by State Government of NSW under the Fostering NSW project.